

After visit Dublin, Fiona went to Arévalo.

She was surprised, Arévalo it was very beautiful. She went to the Arrabal square. She saw the statue of Isabel the Catholic. She lived in Arévalo when she was a girl. When she was an adult she was the queen. Fiona went to the restaurants and she saw all the square and it was beautiful.

plaza del real

After that, Fiona and her little friend walked to the Plaza del Real, a square in the middle of the city and she liked the town hall. She felt hungry and she wanted to go to the Alcozer, the restaurant. She ate piglet with potatoes. shse love teh piglet but not the potatoes because are salty.

After that, Fiona and her little friend walked around the towers of Plaza de la Villa.

They were built in the eleventh century and they are 22 metres tall. It was very sunny and people were taking lots of pictures. Many children were playing there. Fiona's cat listened a strong sound and ran to the door of the two towers, and when Fiona was looking for her cat, she is attacked by a dragon which expels milk and cola cao. Fiona was very angry.

Fiona were in the Arévalo's Castle

she think the Arévalo's castle is very beautiful and big the Arévalo's castle is very old.

Fiona was visiting Mévalo

Fona went to the paseo fluvial, in the paseo fluvial find a lot of nature and 2 rivers called 1 Adaja and the other Arebalillo she continiu walking and see 2 bredges and 5 snakes

After that, Fiona and her little friend crossed the Medina's bridge.

It's a medieval bridge built in the 14th century. It crosses over the Arevalillo river.
It displays three main eyes in the form of pointed arches. there are alot of plants and animals.

She saw two deers and two hawks. She thought they are beautiful.

-I LOVE THIS BRIDGE!-

Fiona went to visit pine forest of Arévalo.

People were collecting milk-caps with a basket. Normally the people were walking the dog.

Fiona liked this pine forest.

The cat of Fiona climbed a tree but decided to go down.

She saw a wild boar and decided ran.

Fiona visited our school, CEIP La Moraña. She saw the cantine and she love the Clari's food. We played a football match and a basketball match.

She liked the school because she played with the childrens. She talked to the headteacher Patricia, (y le dijo que podía venir cuando quiera)

Fiona visited La Lugareja, a hermitage.

She thought that the hermitage was going to be haunted with ghosts and would be very scary. But it turns out that it was very cold but beautiful hermitage.

THE END